The Masonic Brotherhood fund campaign, the third drive by New York State Masons to support rheumatic fever research and other charitable projects, has topped the first $100,000 mark.

Mr. Albert is married and has two children. A daughter Sheila Ellen, a junior at Connecticut College for Women, and Charlotte Patricia, a student at South Side High School. 546 Births In Freeport Hospital During Year; 1,904 Surgery Cases

Just 546 babies were born in Freeport Hospital last year, statistics collected by Mrs. Caroline B. Mock, the superintendent, reveal. These included six sets of twins. And the proportion of boys and girls was amazingly close, the male of the species exceeding the female by the close count of 274 to 272.

In addition, 1,904 patients were admitted to the institution, nearly all having been surgical cases.

Such figures are far cry from the expectations of Miss Rose Waggoner when she established the sanitarium at South Ocean ave. and Rose st., on June 13, 1933. At that time she conducted the institution with the aid of two registered nurses.

Now in the stone building at South Ocean ave. and Arch st., which has been occupied for eleven years, there are 26 nurses and the hospital has a bed capacity of 33. The institution, registered as a hospital, is conducted by Miss Bella Collins, who has been supervisor of nurses for two years.

The hospital property includes the entire block fronting on the east side of South Ocean ave. from Arch st. to Southside ave. and extending back for a considerable distance, providing plenty of room for expanding the institution when the time seems ripe.

Freeport Hospital is operated by a board of directors comprising Dr.

L.I. Science Teachers To Sponsor Congress

Students of Area To Participate in Event At Adelphi May 27

In one of the first ventures of its kind, the Long Island Science Teachers Association will sponsor a Science Congress for area students on May 27, at Adelphi College. Hundreds of area students are expected to actively participate in this event, while thousands more will be likely to visit and observe what fellow students are doing in their science studies.

A Science Congress is an undertaking whereby students are given an opportunity to display their science talent through individual or group projects they have worked out! The president's advisory committee on education recently went on record as stating that schools must develop trained scientists. With this view in mind the Association several months ago began for making plans for staging this event which is open to elementary and secondary schools in Nassau and Suffolk.

During the past two weeks official notices have been sent to all schools on the Island advising them of plans for the congress and enlisting their support. Already returns have begun to come in, creating a strong interest in the affair.

Valuable prizes, including scholarships will be awarded to first prize winners in all fields. Winners of scholarships must meet standard requirements to be eligible. Grand prize winner will be sent to the national science congress in Philadelphia. Mrs. Daniel Senseney is program chairman while Mrs. Fred Fauerbach heads the organization.

CENTENNIAL AVE. DADS TO PUT ON P.T.A. PARODY

An interesting program has been arranged by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Centennial ave. school in Roosevelt for Tuesday night.

Husbands of the members are to put on a parody of an executive board meeting and also a hill-billy program. Mrs. Marcus J. Christ, North Nassau director of the New York State Conference of Parents and Teachers, is to give the address.

Miss Marjorie McConnell of Baldwin is chairman while Mrs. Fred Fauerbach heads the organization.

5,500 Phones Here Go on Dial Operation On Sunday at 3 A.M.

Total Soon Will be 9,500; Service to Be Given 1,400 Shortly

Freeport telephone subscribers will start dialing Sunday. The actual start of the new system will be at 3 A.M. William B. Billmeyer, New York Telephone Co. manager for this area, announced today. The change will affect 5,500 subscribers here in Roosevelt, Merrick and North Merrick. It will be the first of four steps in providing 9,500 local telephone users with dial.

New service will start when old telephone wires are clipped and new telephone equipment put in at the telephone company building, 120 South Grove St., Mr. Billmeyer said. At two week intervals, three more groups—consisting of 2,000, 1,500 and 400 subscribers respectively—are slated to receive dial service, until a total of 9,500 subscribers will be able to dial their calls.

1,400 Waiters to Get Service

In addition to improving our telephone service with the new dial equipment, we expect to be able to furnish the 1,400 waiting applicants in the area served from the Freeport building with telephone service by the end of March," he asserted.

Pointing out that by the time the fourth step of the dial cutover is

Eddie Vasil INTRODUCES

... Dr. Jerome K. Asch

"Police Surgeon of the Village of Freeport" Dr. Jerome K. Asch, with his able assistant, Dr. Bernard R. Nowowitz, handle important duties of the office of Police Surgeon, as the Freeport Police Department, under Chief Peter Elar, is comprised of young energetic officers and men, so are these two doctors symbolic of the new streamlined type of men now serving the public. The police medical center, located in the new Dr. Asch Building at 124 No. Grove St., like the police department, is a model for other communities to copy.

Dr. Asch is a lifelong resident of Long Island and has lived in Freeport since 1928. He attended the grammar schools in Brooklyn, was graduated from Boys' High School, and after studying at New York University, and the University of Pittsburgh, received his M.D. from Boston University's School of Medicine. Although only 38 years old, his background contains a wealth of medical experience. Dr. Asch served with Army Medical Corps for three years and spent a year and a half in the European Theater with the famous 19th Signal Corps. He was awarded the Certificate of Commendation in Germany. He is a member of the New York State and Nassau County Medical Societies, a Fellow of the American Medical Association, member of the American Legion, William Clinton Story Post, Freeport Lodge of Elks, Phi Delta Epsilon (medical fraternity) and on the staffs of South Nassau Communities, Freeport, and Brunswick Hospitals.

Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V.F.W., has acquired a building at 396 Atlantic ave. for use as headquarters for the present hours, or only a slight modification, the Village Board took the matter under advisement. Indications were, however, that there would be a compromise on either 7 or 8 o'clock.

Samuel Israel, speaking for the Chamber of Commerce, urged a change to 6 o'clock. He said that in Glen Cove the hours were from 9 to 6 o'clock except Friday and Saturday when they were from 9 A.M. to 9 P.M.; in Westbury, where meters were recently installed, 8 A.M. to 7 P.M.; Great Neck, 8 A.M. to 7 P.M., which hours seemed to be proving satisfactory and rewarding. Furthermore, he called by telephone, 9 A.M. to 6 P.M., a change having been made recently from the original hours of 9 A.M. to 8 P.M.

Grebiner Cites Vote Figures.

Inasmuch as no other villages operate the meters as late as 9 P.M., Mr. Israel insisted Freeport should not do so either. He said people from neighboring villages liked to come to Freeport evenings to window shop and were interested

Athena Club Presidents' Day Draws 214 Members and Guests

There was a turnout of 214 members and guests at the annual Presidents' Day of the Athena Club in the auditorium of the Columbus ave. school Monday afternoon. Mrs. Roy R. Gockley, the president, in opening the meeting gave a cordial greeting to the 37 guests of honor among who were Athena's past presidents as well as many active heads of women's clubs on Long Island. Each guest was presented a corsage.

The guests responded briefly to Mrs. Gockley's introduction. Among the guests were Mrs. William Golding, president of the New York State Federation of Woman's Clubs, and Mrs. William Savacool, president of the Long Island Federation.

Mrs. Cornelius VanRaes gave an interesting account of the recent convention of the Long Island Federation.

The program was provided by the Choral and Drama Departments, of which Mrs. Meredith S. Clowes and Mrs. Charles A. Lutz are the respective chairmen.

The thespians presented a play "The Stolen Prince" by Dan Totheroth, with the following in the cast: Mrs. Clement Winter, Mrs. Gerald Drach, Mrs. William Becker, Mrs. Walter J. A. Mack, Mrs. Harvey Purnell, Mrs. Gilbert S. Flint, Mrs. Irving J. Regan, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Joseph Gilpin, Mrs. Charles Ully and Mr. John O'Neil.

Mrs. Charles A. Lutz, the director, of the choral sang a group of oriental numbers in keeping with the play. They were "Chinese Lullaby" from "East is West," by Bowers; "Sun and the Warm Brown Earth," by Branscombe, and "When I Have Sung My Song," by Charles.

Mrs. Arthur C. Ray and Mrs. Harold Raynor sang as duets, "Evening" from "Pique Dame," by Tschalkowsky, and "Seranda" from "Le Rol La Di" by Delibes. Mrs. John Form gave "The Lord's Prayer." Robert T. Tavis is choral director.

The following new members were introduced by Mrs. Howard MacDougal: Mrs. Nathaniel Wheeler, Mrs. Frederick C. Higman, Jr., Mrs. Douglas Soutar, Mrs. William B. Billmeyer, Mrs. John Newquist, Mrs. Hermus S. Verbeek, Mrs. Joseph V. Martino, Mrs. H. M. Warren, Mrs. Louis Cronin, Mrs. Grace Smith, Miss Anna Fritz and Mrs. Walter Bedell.

When guests and members entered the hall, a similar report for his group urged that the "users be considered." Arthur Olsen, president of the Northeast Civic Association, announced that though his organization had not acted on the matter, a survey indicated the members were opposed to a material change in metropolitan laws.

Arthur Olsen, another member of the Northeast, appealed to the board not to make any drastic change, and Emanuel Well of the NorthWest group, spoke also.

Other speakers were Clinton R. Golden, Maurer J. Fox and Jack L. Green.

Methodist P.M. Group Hears Talk on Diamonds

Hermus S. Verbeek, expert diamond cutter, gave an interesting talk on diamonds at the February meeting of the P.M. group of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Freeport Methodist Church in the social hall. He said no diamonds were found in North America, their sources being South Africa, the Belgian Congo and Brazil.

Diamonds are of every color, Mr. Verbeek said, but the pink is the rarest and most expensive. To avoid paying duty on diamonds exported to the country, as now, diamonds are exempt, diamond cutters in Amsterdam and Antwerp, cut only the small stones and send the large ones here to be cut, he added. There is a three-year apprenticeship in the diamond trade, the speaker said, but it takes six years of training before one becomes an expert diamond cutter.

Mrs. William Founds was introduced as a new member. Mrs. Henry Hoffman, program chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. Eleanor, Mrs. Garland Noyes and Mrs. Theodore Turnau.

completed many telephone numbers will be changed. Mrs. Billmeyer urged widespread use of indexed personal number booklets and identification cards. Booklets and cards are available without charge at the business office of the telephone company.

"Starting Sunday, 5,500 customers with individual or party lines, whose numbers begin with FReeport 8, will be able to dial directly all calls to FReeport 8 and 9, Baldwin 3 and WAnatah 2," he said.

"Customers with individual lines who subscribe to extended area service may, in addition, dial directly any of the eight exchanges - GArden City 7, HEmpstead 2 and 7, LOnge Beach 6, LYnnbrook 3 and 9, MAssapequa 6 and ROccy 2," he explained.

"For 'party line' customers who extend their numbers in FReeport 8 and 9, Baldwin 3 and WAnatah 2, but to reach the eight exchanges in the extended area, they must dial 'Operator' and give her the number they are calling."

"We've found from past experience that 'curiously calling' can actually hinder prompt handling of your call--so please don't make unnecessary calls during the first few days of dialing," Mr. Billmeyer concluded.

Major Eastwood Explains Work Of Wayside Home School To Rotary

Major Emily Eastwood, superintendent of the Salvation Army's Wayside Home School in Valley Stream, described the work being done in the institution in a talk given to the members of the Rotary Club at the weekly supper meeting in the Elks Clubhouse Thursday night. She was introduced by Major Ernest W.

Newton, commander of the local Salvation Army Corps.

The Salvation Army is primarily a religious organization, Major Eastwood said. "We are not supervised by any other organization," he said.

Major Eastwood added: "We are definitely interested in them as human beings made in the image of God and we shall always maintain that God made man, he can remake him. All our sights are sent to the Wayside Home School by the Salvation Army.

Putting out the security is the basic need of every individual, she said all want to know that jobs are secure, and the child seeks to feel secure in the home. Replying to the question "Why do young people get into difficulties from which it seems impossible to extricate themselves?" she blamed "unstable home life, questionable parents, divorce, death of one or both parents, separation of families because of illness, inconsistent treatment of children in a family, and excessive conflicts between husband and wife.

"How shocked we are as we read of children who are neglected to the point of starvation," she said. "But in reading of them what do we do about them? It could happen here. What is to prevent it unless we realize that we are the responsible members of society who should do something about it."

In concluding, "What is your batting average as a parent?" the Major asked a series of questions designed to bring home to mothers and fathers their responsibilities to their children. They were:

"Do you see your children or the children of friends heading for trouble because of lack of parental supervision—that should have understanding in the first place?" "Do your children consider you old and stuffy if you stay at home when they have company?" Are you given a polite invitation to go out for the evening to the 'movies' or elsewhere? Why should the very ones who love the child the most be the ones who are encouraging friends?" Do you know what happens when parents continually absent themselves from home?

"Do you know where your son or daughter is when they are out 'on their own'? Do you know what 'joints' they are going to? Do you overlook the 'bottle tipping' episode?"

"Do you ever have family prayers? Have your children ever seen you upon the platform? Do you know the Greatest Friend of all your needs for yourself and family?"

"In a country as great as America where our forefathers came to worship God as they saw fit—we must constantly remember that we must be a praying nation—that we must keep God at the helm of our lives," Major Eastwood concluded. "He must be the head of the family—the silent guest in our homes—the great Helper in all of our lives. Is he at the head of your household?"

Planning and leading discussion groups of various kinds will be the work of a conference planned for young adults and their advisors to be held Saturday, February 18, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. at the Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute Farmingdale, according to an announcement by John S. Stiles, Jr., of the Nassau County Extension Service.

This workshop is one of ten being held throughout New York State under the sponsorship of the New York State Rural Youth Conference. Local cooperating agencies include the Grange, Nassau and Suffolk Counties Extension Service, Long Island Agricultural and Technical Institute and local churches.

This workshop is planned to help young people out of high school and adults who are working with programs designed to interest young people. Emphasis will be on the techniques of organization, with some attention being given to subjects and resources. Officers and program chairmen are especially urged to attend.

Persons interested in further details about this workshop should write Mr. Stiles, Old Court House Annex, Mineola, or telephone Garden City 7-7820.

Many Local Legionnaires Attend Dinner to Buckley

In his address he voiced opposition to the recommendations of the Hoover governmental reorganization report which would disband the Veterans Administration and distribute its functions among other departments. He explained that the decentralization of the administration would prove detrimental to the interests of the veterans.

Girls in such families have a keen feeling of rejection and insecurity, which with other causes find expression in sex delinquency, vagrancy, truancy, stealing and other avenues, she said. These conditions, Major Eastwood added, were not found alone in slum areas, because farm areas contribute their share, as do the middle class and upper brackets, too.

The Major told of what some girls have gone through before they were sent to the Wayside Home School by the Salvation Army.

"Where do we start to try to ease the marks on these scars?" Major Eastwood asked. "Where will we get sufficient help to help these wounds?" She explained by kindly treatment and consideration most of the girls sent to the school are rehabilitated and enabled to resume their place in society.

"How shocked we are as we read of children who are neglected to the point of starvation," she said. "But in reading of them what do we do about them? It could happen here. What is to prevent it unless we realize that we are the responsible members of society who should do something about it."

N.C. Health Ass'n. Joins Move for Industries

The Nassau County Medical Society and Public Health Association has joined the cavalcade of organizations which support the efforts to bring new light-industries to the county.

Mrs. Genevieve Brock, Rehabilitation Director for the Association said this week that the proposed expansion of light-industries here would bring new hope to many tuberculosis patients who have been discharged from the hospital and who have been given permission to work either full or part time.

Explaining this, Mrs. Brock said: "Such a system, as has been tried with considerable success in other areas of the country, but generally these areas have been much more rural than Nassau."

Dr. Freeze added that Nassau County already has available many doctors for emergency duty. It is always possible to get a doctor quickly by calling the local police. Many doctors, too, he added, subscribe to telephone answering services whose operators are trained to help locate a doctor in an emergency.

Dr. Freeze said that he will appoint a committee to make a thorough study of the project and present a report on the matter to the medical society as soon as practical.

Medical Society Plans 24-hour On Duty Service

The Nassau County Medical Society is to study plans to establish a 24-hour-a-day emergency service of on-duty doctors, Dr. Walter Freeze, the president revealed today.

Dr. Freeze explained the object of the plan would be to enlist a sufficient number of doctors for duty on a 24-hour basis so a physician would be available at any time on an emergency basis anywhere in the county.

Such a system, Dr. Freeze said, has been tried with considerable success in other areas of the country, but generally these areas have been much more rural than Nassau.

Dr. Freeze added that Nassau County already has available many doctors for emergency duty. It is always possible to get a doctor quickly by calling the local police. Destroying Nassau's 'Surplus' Potatoes

Nassau County potato growers are awaiting orders from Washington and Albany to destroy approximately 3,000,000 pounds of spuds in storage eligible for the 1949 government support price. They are to be paid between $2.00 and $2.15 per hundredweight to keep the potatoes off the market and thus keep the prices up. And this is only a small fraction of the total cost of supporting potato prices throughout the nation.

What a crime? What a travesty? With Europeans starving for want of adequate food, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Nunn issues orders for the destruction of enough potatoes to feed them adequately for a long time. It surely is tough on consumers who have to pay more for the potatoes, pay the cost of reimbursing the farmers to destroy the "surplus" and pay the interest on the bonds that must be floated to meet the cost.

And they call this an enlightened country. Sometimes we wonder.

REFLECTIONS

By Edmund R. Wernick

To Life

I wonder why you have given so much?
You have given with nothing to gain.
I have found your pleasure warm to the touch,
But I can't long remember pain.

To the nectar you may have added bane—
But I'll sip it till close of day;
For all of the things I possess are mine,
Your power can't take them away.

For all I have lost I have gained much more;
The finest there is you impart;
I have something to do, something to hope for,
And something to keep in my heart.

I hoard them all—the riches you render—
All mine till the last drawn breath;
And, even then, each gift I'll surrender
To the victor of all—unto death.

VASIL'S VARIETIES

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ANNIVERSARY TESTIMONIAL. Dear Readers: Your wonderful surprise testimonial issue made this reporter's heart cry with joy. It will be treasured forever and your many names and flattering comments will remain engraved in my memory. It is too priceless a reward for my humble efforts.

FREEPORTING THE NEWS . . . That ex-Main St. chain manager caught on to his wife's indiscretions and is toying with his pistol with murder on the brain. (He knows the 3rd member of the triangle) . . . ATTY. JULIE BIRGENTHAL is back and tanned from his Florida fest. (He teased locals with tantalizing post-cards from the sunshine state) . . . VFW Auxiliary Card Party at SHORECREST HOTEL tremendous success. (Owner DAVE SHAPIRO, a man for femme pianist-vocalist for his cocktail stage entertainment program).

Then came that summer night in 1932 which changed their lives. Mark's Aunt Kate was murdered, upsetting things happened to Jane and Tim, to Jane and Mark, even little Kitty's life was affected. Mark threw herself more and more into reclaiming the land, hard to the thought that one day oil would be discovered and she prospered at least temporarily. Didn't certain determination bring about her great loss? Mrs. Alice Welsch Graham's "Natchez Woman" gives us an excellent picture of the days from World War I into World War II of that city. A Natchez girl herself, Mrs. Graham should give us authentic background in this, her second novel. Her characters are well drawn though we may not feel that they are always "pleasant" characters.

THIS CONCERN'S YOU, SO LET'S GET SERIOUS . . . Motion pictures are the only means of entertainment for most of the average citizens, and in comparison to other forms of family recreation, movies are probably the least expensive. Originally, Uncle Sam slapped a 10 percent tax on them, but it was "temporarily" increased to 20 percent. Now the Congress is talking about cutting luxury taxes on jewelry, furs, etc., every movie-goer should give his support to the motion to kill the 20 percent amusement tax. This would mean a saving to the film fan because it would greatly lower the admission price. Contact BILL MAY, Grove Century Theatre Manager, and sign his petition and protest blanks to congressmen.

IN THE first chapter of "Doctor's Decision" there is a detailed description of an operation to relieve intracranial pressure. At the end of the complex operation the doctor says to the nurse, "Wipe. Dura cat gut sutures." The fight against diseased cells and the immuno-cells is a battle in terms of greatly heightened sensory perceptions; the author, Herbert Gerardell, M.D., makes the reader's senses vulnerable in his novelized account of medicine.

The story tells the wonder of the mechanics of skilled surgery, but it is also an indictment against "the doctor's prestige" rather than the welfare of the patient. The young intern in "Doctor's Decision" in his attempt to practice the Hippocratic oath literally stands out from the older, trained men who are cynical, egotistic or looking only to material reward and prestige. After the unnecessary death of a little girl and several episodes involving extra suffering of poor patients, Jean L'Homme, M.D. resigns from the hospital with his medical reputation at stake.

The parts of the work which deal with L'Homme's final decision and his tragic love affair seem somewhat unnatural, but do not lessen in any way the meaning and impact of the book. The vindication of the wrong done to the young medical crusader by organized medicine occurs at the end of the book, but Dr. L'Homme has not had an easy, or a satisfying emotional life. He will go on happily in his devotion to medical science and its advance.

EDDITOR'S NOTES . . . One of the best new dance-band combos around these parts goes under the moniker "Neptuners." The musicians are tops and the arrangements original. (They played many Nassau polo benefits) but the show-stopper is the female blonde beauty who plays the sax. She looks like a movie starlet and her man's (Dixie) is a real stud. Her hubby's the band leader. The all-seamless band is FHS '49 charmer BABS HEAGNEY, student at State Teachers College at New Paltz. (Mid-term exams bring many college kids back home.) Thanks to lovely MARJORIE LOIS MILSTEIN (her dad's Dr. Louis M., the dentist) for being one of our biggest boosters at FHS.

Did you know that by owning its own electric power plant Freeport is able to cut off more than $50,000.00 from the yearly budget? . . . and REGGIE PHELAN's sister (she drives for Freeport Taxi, R.R. Ave.) is one of Gotham's top dancers. (Roxie Theatre, Richard A'Dare, TV etc.)

DESSERT . . . The RAYMOND (Singer Sewing) KIRCHDORFER baby was a little girl (Mary Lou). . . Add cute couples: PAT RUTT and her husband professor at the Academy of Theatrical Arts. . . CONGRATULATIONS to Brother TOM (ace attorney) DOWD, now Trustee of the Freeport Lodge of Elks. . . Didja know that KAY STAROS is an RN? (Her hubby Jim is utility exec.) . . . Fpt. Policeman ELMER LANE is one of the best photos in these parts. (Studied under our ace lensman Jerry Bagatelle) . . . CLIFF SOHORER reports unusual customer demand for his typewriter stands—they use them to make their television sets movable. . . That miniature tuxedo in the GEORGE-STANLEY window (Sunrise Hwy) was tailored for Phillip Morris' call boy Johnny who will visit Freeport as a JOE PIEGEL (ciggle representative) ambassador-of-goodwill. . . LEON WEISMAN (Leon Charles custom tailors and clothers) could tell Washington biggies about Russia from personal experience. He fought communists there and left when he was 19 years old. (Will be on front-pages soon.)

TIDBITS . . . Freeport housing rehabilitation program will have to commit to "enforce" campaign. (Movement is sincere and all-out program will step on plenty of toes—you'll be surprised.)

THE NORTHEAST CIVIC ASSOCIATION in your book as one of the most active Freeport civic organizations. (They meet at Harry Berkowitz's on May Ave.) . . . DAVE BANKS (Air Force vet) proudly drives the selected from over fifty who applied for the job. . . Freeport Patrolman new FREEPORT DRUG Austin delivery car these days since he was

DON MITTHAUSER off the beat for second week with pneumonia.

OFF THE CUFF . . . Correction: The NAT SWIRSONS named their heiress Flurette Margo, after Uncle Harry Balogh's wife. (He's well-known fight-announcer.) Tip that MORRIS CARLYLE (G&R West owner) is planning to spring with a food idea that will be the one and only on Long Island. . . GUY LOMBARDO Yogurt shopping in A-Deal Market (So. Grove) Monday noon. (With clerks and customers doing double-takes.) . . . What happened to the morality clause supposed to be included in Hollywood contracts? . . . B'nai B'rith parents showed the general theme for the convention is "Better Schools Through Better Leadership."

There will be a floor show and dancing starting at 9 o'clock.

under normal conditions had been quickly rusted by the damp conditions in the lowlands of the southern end of the village, making it necessary to replace them. He said transist pipe which is expected to be more durable was being substituted for those being replaced.

Next Wednesday night, members of the Roosevelt Club will attend the dinner in the Elks clubhouse.

George V. Maurer, superintendent of the Municipal Water Department, explained the operations of his bureau at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the Elks Clubhouse.

He said Freeport had the purest water supply of any community anywhere due to natural sandy soil conditions and the fact a constant inspection is maintained by the department.

He told of how the numerous building developments in the village were creating a demand for more water which would be required by the increased receipts.

He said three-quarters of the buildings in the village are equipped with water-meters and that the others would be before summer is over.

Mr. Maurer also told of how iron pipes which usually last for years are being replaced by plastic pipe which usually last for years.

Harry J. Berkowitz hinted that Washington was playing politics with the project, and suggested that Senator Lehman, a Democrat, behind the restoration of the money needed, it stood a better chance of passage.

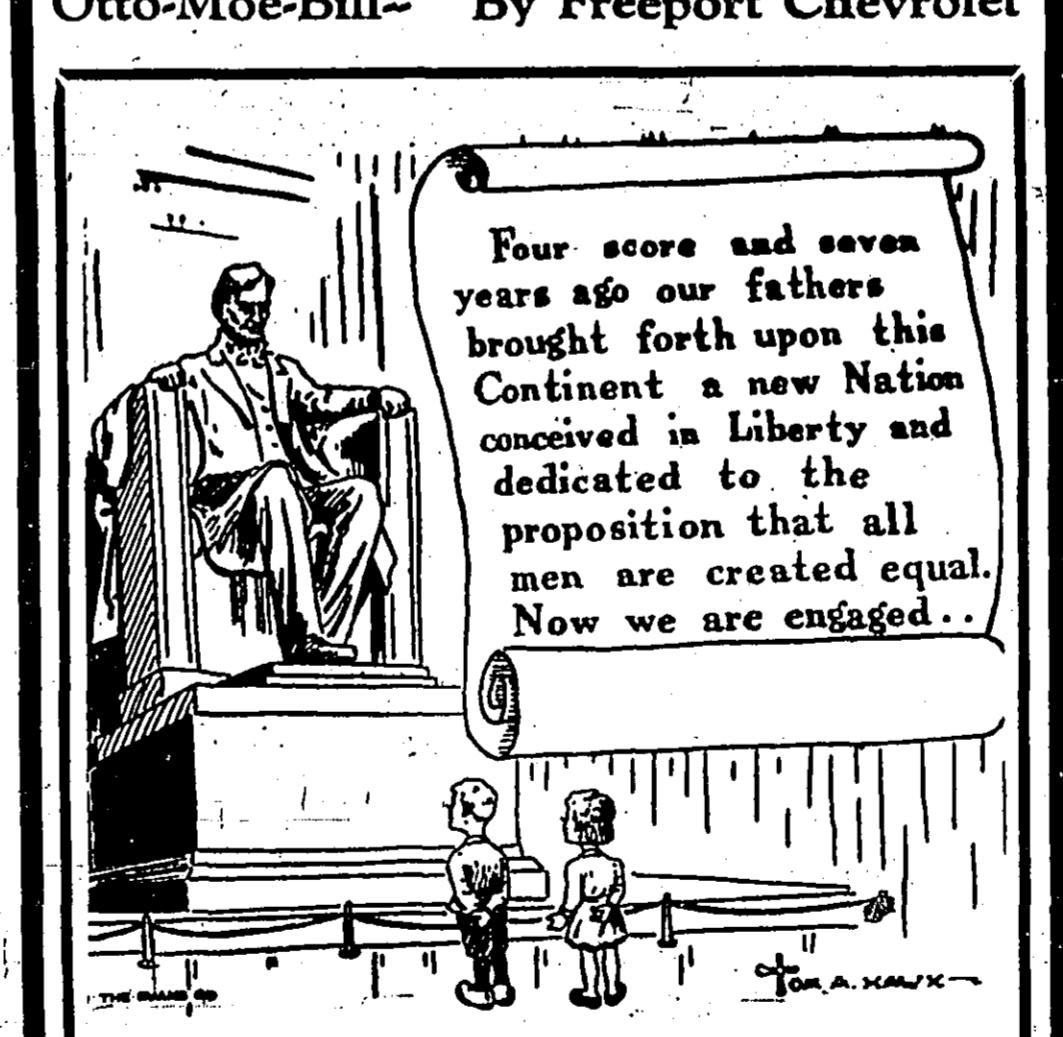

Mr. Edmund Rosenthal reported that the second dinner in Gulf Lodge's East Room was a success financially and socially, and announced a square dance for Saturday night, April 15, in Pythian Hall.

Ranks for Enlistments

At the Navy Recruiting Substation, Fulton Ave. Freeport, N.Y., received the degree master of science at the 93rd commencement exercises held in the Hall of Music at Purdue University Sunday afternoon. Dr. Frederick L. Hovde, president of the University, was the only speaker. The Rev. F. Elwynn Peace, pastor of the First Christian Church, Freeport, gave the invocation and benediction. A reception was given for the graduates after the ceremony.

The announcement adds that it is definitely not necessary to be a high school graduate for enlistment. More detailed information on the many special programs open at this time may be had by telephoning or calling at the Navy Recruiting Substation in Freeport.

The Third Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Were Wrong!

Is it a crime to give people more good food for their money?

For 90 years A&P has devoted all its energies to this end.

For many months now the anti-trust lawyers from Washington have been giving stories to the newspapers, making speeches and talking over the radio about this company.

They have been making serious and damaging allegations about the methods that enable A&P to give its customers better food values.

We have already told you about other times the anti-trust lawyers made charges against us that were proved utterly false in court.

Now we are going to tell you about the third time a federal judge decided against the anti-trust lawyers.

The Dallas Anti-Trust Suit

In 1942 the anti-trust lawyers went out to Dallas, Texas, 1,400 miles from the homes of most of the defendants, and instigated criminal charges against A&P.

About this case one thing was sure.

Their previous experience did not deter the anti-trust lawyers from making more inflammatory and damaging allegations, just as they had done before.

They made practically the same allegations they are making today.

Federal Judge W. H. Atwell ruled that the case should not even be tried.

He said that the indictment contained inflammatory statements that he would not permit to be presented to a jury.

Judge Atwell said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If I thought I was presiding over a court and that I might have to sentence some person because he was a great big fellow, or because he was a Lilliputian, I would feel like resigning. God knows we don't want it ever to occur in America that the size is going to determine whether a man is guilty or innocent."

Judge Atwell also said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If the indictment is not good then it is better to find out before an expensive trial than it is after an expensive trial. I do not think it is good, and thinking that, it is my duty to sustain the demurrers and motion to quash."

In short, Federal Judge Atwell threw the anti-trust lawyers and their case right out of his court.

So that makes three times that the anti-trust lawyers made damaging allegations against A&P. In two of these cases federal judges said they were all wrong. In the third case a federal judge said the indictment was inflammatory and he would not even permit the case to be tried.

The anti-trust lawyers were not satisfied with the Dallas decision.

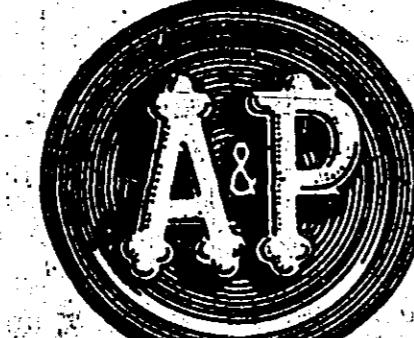

Neither were they satisfied with the two other decisions in which federal courts administered stinging rebukes to them.

They were still determined to destroy A&P.

In our next ad we will tell you how they continued their campaign in this case in the Circuit Court of Appeals and subsequent proceedings.

We will show you how, once again, they disagreed with the courts.
